

Your first steps to our Bereavement Support Service

Stepping Stones Bereavement Support Group offers support for adults who have had a bereavement. Our support service is available to anyone who is grieving, irrespective of time, cause or relationship. There is also no requirement to have had previous contact with Pilgrims Hospices Services.

What can I gain from attending the support group?

Bereavement can often increase feelings of loneliness and isolation. Stepping Stones volunteers can offer you bereavement support. This informal social group provides a welcoming and confidential space for you to share with others in similar situations.

Who runs the support group?

The group is run by a team of trained volunteers, through a local partnership between Pilgrims Hospices in East Kent and South Kent CRUSE Bereavement Care.

Attending the support group

The support group meets every month and is free of charge. We meet in a comfortable lounge area, at one of the local Pilgrims Therapy Centres.

New people can join the group at any point and gain support for up to six months. Information about further supportive services will be available.
